FAHAD AL-MUTLAQ

URBAN ECONOMIST FROM KSA AND
THE CEO OF THE EASTERN PROVINCE
DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

Fahad Al-Mutlaq is an urban economist with 23 years of invaluable experience as a transformational and innovative leader, who fosters alignment through knowledge and information towards a shared vision, as the primary means of achieving success.

His main focus in his current post as the CEO of Al Sharqia Development Authority is the facilitation of engagement and alignment among all stake holders to support the transformation of the Eastern Province and positively impact people's lives. He terms it as, "Co-Creating Prosperity".

Fahad's thought leadership as an urban economist is founded on a bachelor's degree in civil engineering, two master's degrees – an MBA (2014), and a Master's in Project and Construction Management (2007) – a relentless passion for learning, problem solving and over two decades of hands-on experience.

Fahad sits on the board of several leading organizations like Al Ugair Development Company, Al Damam Airports Company and Ishraq Company.

When he isn't sketching grand plans for the future of the region as an urban economist, CEO or as a board member at several organizations, Fahad usually spends his time indulging in his passion for cars, and being a dedicated husband and father to his four children.

PROFESSIONAL JOURNEY

Fahad's career started back in 2001 with a decade-long showcase of his strategic ability as a Planning Engineer in the Department of Facilities Planning and Land Use.

In 2014, during his seventh year at the Ministry of Defense, he oversaw the construction and operation of the largest aerospace industrial facility in the Middle East. Here, he gained valuable experience working with some of the world's largest aerospace and defense contractors.

That experience of leadership excellence landed him his position as the CEO of the Arabian Industry and Service Group. During which, he collaboratively led a major merger and few acquisitions, while crafting effective strategies and plans to accommodate concurrent eco-social changes in the Arabian Gulf region.

A few years later, as the Chief Strategy Officer of the Council for Economic Affairs and Development, Fahad participated in the development of the National Strategy of Saudi Arabia (the Saudi Vision 2030) and its programs. He was then appointed as the CEO of Al Sharqia Development Authority, where he currently leads the development of the Eastern Province Strategic Plan – with a laser-sharp focus on ensuring prosperity for all in the region.
